Notice

When you open your account, you will have the option to select a 35 Day, 95 Day or 120 Day notice period on your account. This will be set for the duration your account is open.

The notice period you choose will determine the number of calendar days' notice you need to give to take money out of your account.

Cancellation and closure of your account

If you change your mind, you have 14 days from the date you opened your account in which to cancel your account. Within this cancellation period you do not need to provide any reason and you can take your money out without notice.

Following the cancellation period, you will need to provide the relevant notice period to be able to withdraw.

In exceptional circumstances, we might let you close your account or take your money out without serving the relevant notice period. For example, if you have a terminal illness. Depending on why you want to do this, we might ask you for proof. For example, we might ask for a letter from your GP confirming an illness.

If we let you close your account or take your money out early, we'll let you keep any interest you have earned. We won't charge you for closing your account before the fixed-term ends.

A key term you need to know

'Nominated Account' is an account you have in the UK. It must be able to accept payments from your Personal Online Notice Saver Account. You must be named on the account. This account must be able to accept payment by Faster Payment or CHAPS. You can only have one Nominated Account per Online Notice Saver.

Taking money out of your account once the notice period has expired

You need to provide notice to take money out of your account. You will need to create a withdrawal request using Online Banking. A record of your request will be displayed on your Online Banking and your money will be transferred to your Nominated Account on the next working day, following expiry of the notice period.

We'll validate that you're named on the Nominated Account. You cannot make payments to the Nominated Account whilst we do this. You can request to change the Nominated Account. If so, we'll need to follow this process again.

You can only take money out of your account by sending it to:

- an account you have with us (as long as it accepts payments); or
- your Nominated Account.
